Happy June, Shiloh!

I have so much to thank God for! Successful surgery! Recovery that is long but sure! Children in the church and my own family who are graduating! Cards, calls, visits, edible arrangements, fruits, candies, the prayers of the Saints! The morning Prayer Line, Video Streaming that has allowed me to worship with you each and every Sunday! A competent and caring staff! Folks who see a vision that if we work together, we can do all that God commands of us on Park Avenue! An able Diaconate who follow the voice of the shepherd! Folk who are great followers, and as a consequence are becoming great leaders! I praise God for you, Shiloh, and thank you for being my Church family! Additionally, I praise God for your care and concern this past weekend in the anniversary of the homegoing of our First Lady, and my best friend, Carla! She was truly a jewel in my life and a humble servant in this church. You were so very kind to remember!

I continue to recoup while I work from home. Pray for my patience as we get better and try to do as God and the Holy Spirit commands!

Today, we celebrate the anniversary of those whom you have called out from among you to serve as deacons and deaconesses. I once heard an old deacon say, "a true deacon is not concerned about being great...He's concerned about serving a great God!" We praise God for faithful DEACONS AND DEACONESSSES who serve and go the extra mile, understanding that leadership in the church is always by example. They engage in prayer meetings and Bible study, they lead the church in giving above and beyond God's tithes and offerings, they are quick to drop everything to go to the bedside of members whenever needed. Family deacons call their families regularly, gather their families for moments of prayer and celebration, and are there, during special moments in the life of their church families. They go forth with the church to do ministry in other venues! I join you today as we praise God for dedicated deacons and deaconesses! They are true servants of God's church!

Remember your daily readings! Remember to pray daily at 7:45 am and pm, and remember your support of God's church! I Love you and look forward to rejoining you!

Dr. Alonza Lee Lawrence, a native of Franklin Virginia is the fifth of eight siblings born to Winston and Ruth Lawrence and father of Alonza Brandon and Ariel Denise Lawrence.

Dr. Lawrence holds the Doctorate of Ministry Degree from Union Theological Seminary and the Masters' of Divinity Degree from Virginia Union University in Richmond, Virginia. He earned his undergraduate degree in mathematics with a minor in education from Virginia Union University after having enrolled for a brief stay at Virginia Tech.

It was at the Westwood Baptist Church, Richmond, Virginia that Dr. Lawrence began his pastoral career. It is with this congregation he did his seminary internship and later became the Youth Minister, Assistant to the Pastor, and assumed the Pastorate in 1983. He served this congregation for sixteen years, pastoring them for eleven.

Dr. Lawrence's experience in higher education includes teaching in the Department of Mathematics for the Richmond School System, and adjunct professor at Virginia Union University. He currently serves as adjunct professor at the Samuel DeWitt Proctor School of Theology at Virginia Union University.

In November 1994, Dr. Lawrence became the ninth Pastor of the Moore Street Missionary Baptist Church, a congregation that was celebrating its 119th Anniversary at the time of his arrival. He continues to minister to a growing congregation. Since accepting the call to the Moore Street Missionary Baptist Church, Dr. Lawrence has through the grace of God, worked to establish many new ministries.

He participates in various ministry opportunities beyond the doors of Moore Street. He is an active participant in the Baptist General Convention of Virginia and has served as the president of ABCOTS. Dr. Lawrence has served as president of the Jackson Ward and Vicinity Ministers' Conference and is an active member of the Baptist Ministers' Conference of Richmond and Vicinity. He has completed the Pastoral Excellence Program of the Lott Carey Baptist Foreign Missions Convention which gave him the opportunity to minister in Jamaica, Zimbabwe, Guyana, and South Africa.

The members of the Moore Street Missionary Baptist Church feel blessed to have an under-shepherd who encourages them to seek direction from God as they aspire to reach new heights in their spiritual growth and development. He interacts with many groups on an on-going basis and does not hesitate to take on new and innovative challenges. A meek and humble man with an unselfish love for God's people, he displays the mannerisms of an obedient and courageous disciple who lives by the scripture, "and we know that all things work together for good to them that love God, to them who are the called according to His purpose."
-----Romans 8:28

~ The Diaconate of Shiloh Baptist Church ~

The words deacon or deaconess mean to serve or support. The words have both a general and technical sense in the New Testament. However, these words have come to mean “to serve” in any capacity. A deacon is a male who serves. A deaconess is a female who serves.

In the New Testament church, as the membership began to grow and the outreach to those in need increased, it became necessary to select and ordain servants to assist the spiritual leaders. Standards for those chosen are recorded in 1 Timothy 3:8-13. According to Acts 3:8-10 and other Bible commentaries, the main duty of the deacons appear to have been the care of the poor.

Deacons are basically chosen the same way they were in the early church. Men, and now women, are chosen based on the requisites of Acts 6:3 and the qualifications in 1 Timothy 3:8-9. Just as the practice of ordaining more than deacons and preachers is slowly changing, so are more and more churches ordaining women as deacons and heads of other church ministries not historically led by women. As we read 1 Timothy 3:8-10, the qualifications for deacons hold true for women as well as for men. Even Paul in Romans 16 recognized Phoebe, a woman, as a deacon. (Romans 16:1)

In Baptist churches, during a trial period of six months to a year, the candidates study Bible doctrine, participate in church ministries and are given the opportunity to minister to the spiritual and physical needs of the congregation. In some instances, there is an ordination council that questions those who would be deacons to determine if they are ready to be ordained. If they are, then an ordination service is performed that includes the laying on of hands by a pastor and ordained deacons upon them as a confirmation of their service to God, the congregation and the community. After this confirmation comes a cooperative effort of the pastor and deacons to care for those whom the Lord has given to them to serve.

In verses 8 and 9, Paul gave qualifications that are needed for choosing deacons and the qualifications are also worthy of being requested of all who would serve in non-clerical positions in ministry. With these qualifications Paul provides a look at the nature of the moral and spiritual character these persons should possess.

Deacons [All ordained Non-Clergy] must be serious...mature and respected by others inside and outside the church. Maturity is a necessary characteristic for serious leadership work. Leaders are faced weekly with life and death matters presented by those they serve. This is serious business.

Then, there is the important matter of being leaders who are respected. Job said that people show you respect “when they listen to you and wait for your advice, because you spoke to them with gentle words.” (Job 29:21-22). Christian leaders must respect others in order to receive respect. This too is serious business.

...not double-tongued..An ordained non-clergy leader must not be double-tongued, meaning involved in gossip or not having a conversation of integrity. Titus 2:8 states, “If they

~ The Diaconate of Shiloh Baptist Church ~

“speak the truth then they can’t be criticized.” These leaders must also be persons who are truthful and discreet. Persons are apt to share a multitude of very confidential information with today’s non-clergy leaders. Leaders must know how to handle such information at all times.

...not indulging in much wine... During Paul’s day wine was a commonly used substance much more so than today. Drinking too much wine led to drunkenness. For ordained servants, the awareness that they are always on call adds a further requirement for sobriety, if one is needed. Although Paul mentions wine, because it was the toxin of the day, modernly any excessive habits that deaden one’s senses and in any way harms their ability to serve must be avoided.

...not greedy for money... Being greedy is a sign of discontentment with one’s self. Such discontent actually cannot be cured by money. An ordained Christian servant must never be focused on monetary gain to the harm of their being a walking advertisement for the Savior or the church.

...they must hold fast to the mystery of the faith with a clear conscience... All ordained non-clergy leaders must know what they believe and why they believe it. Much harm is done by ordained leaders who are biblically illiterate and unaware of the polity of their faith community. Continuous training/education is necessary. The training provided before ordination will provide a decent foundation, but it will not be sufficient for those who will provide long-term service. In addition to Bible study and Sunday school classes offered at the local church, and two or three day classes offered at denominational gatherings, more and more ordained non-clergy persons are expected to receive Bible College and or seminary training. Such training is long overdue.

The second part of this verse concerns persons never being ashamed to share their beliefs with others whenever the opportunity presents. How much stronger would the Church be if all ordained leaders knew enough and had the courage to share and speak up about sin in the world while standing on the Word of God?

On November 29, 2015, fourteen members of Shiloh were blessed to join the Diaconate Team of this great church. Their voyage began a year earlier, (October 2014) with spiritual anticipation and with a pious apprehension as to the future. After a year of praying together, studying together, sharing our thoughts and ideas with one another, we found ourselves in awe of the goodness that God had gifted us. A transformed assurance of our salvation, and a sacred and loving devotion to Almighty God, has been the starting point for our redeemed and dedicated Christian Service. The call of these new servants was to work alongside of those who had been previously ordained and consecrated, in support of the pastor, in implementing God’s vision for this church.

As the Shiloh Diaconate works as God’s ministry team, Shiloh is poised to become a Beacon of Love, serving Christ by serving people.

Monthly Memory Verse: Romans 10:8-13

Romans 10:8-13 (KJV): <sup>8</sup>But what saith it? The word is nigh thee, even in thy mouth, and in thy heart: that is, the word of faith, which we preach; <sup>9</sup>That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised Him from the dead, thou shalt be saved. <sup>10</sup>For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation. <sup>11</sup>For the scripture saith, Whosoever believeth on Him shall not be ashamed. <sup>12</sup>For there is no difference between the Jew and the Greek: for the same Lord over all is rich unto all that call upon Him. <sup>13</sup>For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved.
